

REVISÃO 2
SINONÍMIA E ANTONÍMIA
Questão 01

(AFA 2003) The synonym of the underlined word is:
 “They are terribly fussy and like things to be tidy.”

- a) clumsy
- b) inattentive
- c) careful
- d) valiant

Questão 02

(AFA 2003) The underlined word may be replaced by
 “The reality of everyday life that Central Station shows is harsh.”

- a) cunning
- b) harmful
- c) neglectful
- d) strict

Questão 03

(EEAR 2008) The underlined word is closest in meaning to:

Television has contributed to change the values and perceptions of Americans.

- a) cultures.
- b) behaviour.
- c) information.
- d) conceptions.

Questão 04

(EEAR 2009) “mimicking” can be replaced by

The Royal Society for the Protection of Birds has found that British birds, such as starlings, are mimicking the noise of cell phone ringing tones.

- a) singing.
- b) pecking.
- c) imitating.
- d) comparing.

Questão 05

(AFA 2010) The word “enough” can be replaced by
 When I told her, she said $800 wasn't enough for three weeks.

- a) inadequate
- b) enormous
- c) efficient
- d) sufficient

Questão 06

(EEAR 2012) The opposite of “believe” in

Father Fábio de Melo believes that everyone can be happy, even when facing difficult problems.

- a) trust.
- b) agree.
- c) doubt.
- d) accept.

Questão 07

(EEAR 2013) In “Mother to small son”, the opposite of the underlined word is

- a) big.
- b) only.
- c) little.
- d) young.

Questão 08

(EEAR 2012) “luggage” could be replaced by, except:

Police with sniffer dogs were randomly checking passengers and their luggage for possible explosives.

- a) suitcases
- b) baggage
- c) carriage
- d) bags

Questão 09

(EEAR 2010) “countless” can't be replaced by

Guides to dating and internet sites provide countless conversation-openers for introducing yourself to attractive strangers.

- a) limited.
- b) uncounted.
- c) numberless.
- d) innumerable.

Questão 10

(EEAR 2010) The opposite of “the same” is

Just like fingerprints, no two ear lobe prints are exactly the same, and earprints can be found with remarkable ease at many crimes sites.

- a) very.
- b) alike.
- c) similar.
- d) different.

GABARITO

1	2	3	4	5
c	d	d	c	d
6	7	8	9	10
c	a	c	a	d