

FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS (GRAMMAR)

The Future Perfect describes an action that will end in the future.

I will have worked.

The Future Perfect Continuous describes an action that will continue in the future.

I will have been working here ten years.

Emphasising the length of an event at a time in the future:

We use the future perfect continuous form when we are looking back to the past from a point in the future and we want to emphasise the length or duration of an activity or event:

- In September the head teacher will have been teaching at the school for 20 years.
- In September, she will have been living in France for a year.
- I will have been studying English for three years by the end of this course.
- We're late. I think they'll have been waiting for us. We'd better go.

FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS: FORM

We use will/shall + have + been + the -ing form of the verb.

We use shall only for future time reference with I and we. Shall is more formal and less common than will.
