

Dear (x)

I would like to thank you for all of the opportunities I have had over the past (x) years with the company, I have truly enjoyed my experience and feel I have grown a lot, always taking any criticism as constructive. I hope you have been satisfied with my work and would like to take this opportunity to ask if there is a possibility of a review of my salary.

I would like you to take into consideration; rising living costs, together with my increased productivity due to experience gained. The amount I have in mind is (x%) but I am of course open to discussion.

I hope this is a possibility as, as aforementioned I truly enjoy working with the company and intend to grow together with you and genuinely hope this is still only the start of a long and mutually beneficial contract.

Many Thanks in advance
