

MÓDULO 2
VOCABULÁRIO
Questão 01

(ESPCEX 2015) In the sentences “Our position is very sensitive in this country” and “So be sensible for once in your life”, “sensitive” and “sensible” mean respectively

- a) completely safe; responsive.
- b) innocent; inoffensive.
- c) easily affected; reasonable.
- d) conservative; harmful.
- e) worried; stupid.

Questão 02

(ESPCEX 2016) Choose the alternative that correctly substitutes the expression “for instance” in the sentence “In London, for instance, more than 300 languages”

- a) for example
- b) such as
- c) on the other hand
- d) however
- e) no exception

Questão 03

(ESPCEX 2016) Choose the alternative that correctly substitutes the word “bypassing” in the sentence “bypassing traditional modes of legislation-making”.

- a) offending
- b) destroying
- c) praising
- d) avoiding
- e) accepting

Questão 04

(ESPCEX 2016) In the sentence “a gene that stops their offspring from developing properly” the word “offspring” means

- a) wombs
- b) viruses
- c) diseases
- d) brains
- e) babies

Questão 05

(ESPCEX 2018) In the title “Many graduates earn paltry returns for their degree”, the word “paltry” means

- a) big enough.
- b) huge.
- c) very small.
- d) expected.
- e) satisfactory.

GABARITO

1	2	3	4	5
c	a	d	e	c